

COPY OF FORM 990

(TO BE USED, OR COPIED, FOR)

PUBLIC INSPECTION ONLY

NOTE

Under Internal Revenue Regulations, tax-exempt charitable organizations generally must provide requesters with COPIES of:

- Its approved exemption applications, all required attachments and any related correspondence with the IRS, and
- Its three most recent annual information returns (Form 990), including all schedules and attachments (but not the names and addresses of contributors).

In-person requests: A member of the public may request to inspect the documents at any principal office of the organization. The entity must provide the information requested that same day. However, if the request places an “unreasonable burden” on the organization, the staff must provide copies of the requested information no later than the next business day after the unusual circumstances cease to exist (limited to a maximum of five business days after the request).

Written requests: Written requests made by fax, mail, email, or overnight service, which include the requester’s address, must be honored within 30 days of receipt.

Website alternative: Instead of providing copies, an organization may make the documents available on either its own or another organization's website. If it uses this option, it has to: (1) provide an exact replica of the document as was filed with the IRS; (2) advise requesters how to access the forms on the web; (3) the site should charge no access fee and require no special software or hardware to download. Organizations that post this information on the Internet still must honor in-person requests to view the applicable documents.

Permissible charges: Tax-exempt organizations may charge a reasonable copying fee, up to $1 for the first page and 15 cents for each additional page, plus actual postage costs.

Penalties: An organization that fails to comply with the new disclosure requirements may be subject to the following penalties:

- Annual Information Return – Form 990 - $20 per day for as long as the failure continues, up to a maximum of $10,000 for each failure to provide an annual return.
- Exemption Application - $20 per day with no maximum.
- An organization that willfully fails to comply with these public inspection rules can be subject to an additional $5,000 penalty.

Private foundation exempt: The new disclosure rules don't yet apply to private foundations. They must still make a copy of their annual return available for public inspection at their principal office for a period of 180 days after publishing a notice of availability.

Donor Information: Please note that donor information is not open to public inspection and has been excluded from this copy.

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (i) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (ii) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (iii) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Homeless Services rubric of criteria. In FY 2017, The Bowery Mission Transitional Center had 55 men move from homelessness into independent living. The Department of Homeless Services contract ended on June 30, 2017. Management does not intend to renew the contract with the New York City Department of Homeless Services going forward and instead will fund the organization through contributions.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1

Christian Herald Housing Development Fund Corporation (CHHDFC) has a contract with the New York City Department of Homeless Services to operate a 77-bed facility, The Bowery Mission Transitional Center, at 45-51 Avenue D in Manhattan.

CHHDFC is related to Christian Herald Association (CHA), doing business as The Bowery Mission, which has served New Yorkers in need since 1879.
CHHDFC and CHA share the goal of being the most effective provider of compassionate care and life transformation for hurting people in New York City.

While City-provided public funds are strictly withheld from any faith-based activity, those organizations' faith-based approach to the worst social problems of the city has been their foundation of success for 133 years. Neither CHA nor CHHDFC has ever affiliated with a particular church or denomination, and services are provided to all regardless of their beliefs. Our vision is clear: We are called to minister in New York City to men, women, and children caught in cycles of poverty, hopelessness, and dependencies on many kinds, and to see their lives transformed to hope, joy, lasting productivity, and eternal life through the power of Jesus Christ.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:

The Form 990 is prepared by an independent CPA firm. It is reviewed in detail and approved by the CFO and Chairman as well as the Finance and Audit Committee prior to filing. A draft is also provided to the full Board for review prior to filing.

Form 990, Part V, Line 2a

A professional employment organization [PEO] files all payroll information returns as required by the IRS. As such, due to payroll agent reporting rules as included in the IRS instructions, the number of employees reported represent the number of employees who work for the filing organization but are compensated by the PEO.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

On a yearly basis, the Board of Directors reviews the conflict of interest policy and approves any necessary revisions. Directors, officers, and key employees are then required to review the updated conflict of interest policy, and disclose any known conflicts of interest. The CFAO reviews the signed statements. Restrictions imposed on persons involved in transactions with potential conflicts include prohibiting them from participating in the Board or Committee deliberations and/or approval of the transaction.
